F.C.C. Boss Says Pa Won't Get Chance Free TV Out of Bus

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pay-television will be yanked off the air in any area where it begins TV getting free TV out of business, says Rosel H. Hyde, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

Hyde said in an interview, however, that fears the proposed authorization of pay-TV would spell the end of free programs are unjustified.

In ten months, the FCC has received about 150 letters from TV fans who believe—as opposition advertising suggests—that free TV is in danger.

Last Dec. 13, the FCC issued general rules for permitting pay-TV service, in which broadcast signal is transmitted in a scrambled form that only be unscrambled on a home TV set by use of a decoder.

The rules take effect [illegible] but this does not [illegible] immediate start on pay-[illegible]
